

MPPGA Terms & Conditions

The terms and conditions (the “Terms and Conditions”) contained in this agreement are designed to comply with the requirements of BC’s Freedom of Information and Privacy Act. It reflects your right to privacy and permits the UBC Arts Co-op Program (the “Co-op Program”) to disclose relevant information about you to current and potential Co-op employers. They also stipulate Co-op regulations and expectations. It is intended to ensure a procedural fairness for individuals by establishing a set of principles governing all Co-op students administered by UBC Arts Co-op. These Terms and Conditions are in addition to those regulations listed in the University of British Columbia Calendar.

The UBC Arts Co-op Program reserves the right to update, modify, or revise these Terms and Conditions. Questions about the collection of this information may be directed to Linda Gully, Associate Director, at linda.gully@ubc.ca.

I have read and understand the Terms and Conditions and agree to comply with them. I agree:

1.1	That the Co-op office will access my academic records for the purposes of the Co-op Program.
1.2	To permit UBC to release information about me including my résumé, cover letter, transcripts, contact information, citizenship status, and other relevant information to prospective employers to secure employment for co-op work terms while I am in the Co-op Program.
1.3	To keep the co-op job posting information, employer lists, contacts, passwords to the Arts Co-op Program database (“Symplicity”) confidential.

2. COMMUNICATION WITH THE CO-OP OFFICE

2.1	To respond promptly to all messages from my Co-op Career Manager and the Co-op staff.

2.3	To inform the Co-op staff as soon as reasonably possible of any inappropriate, unsafe, and/or unethical behaviour or treatment during my participation in the Co-op Program, including during the recruitment process, in an interview, or in the workplace.

3. ACADEMIC PERFORMANCE & STUDENT CONDUCT

3.1A	To maintain good academic standing to remain in the Co-op Program
3.2	To behave appropriately and according to all UBC policies, procedures and guidelines for the duration of my participation in the Co-op Program, whether on an academic term at UBC or on a co-op work term.

UBC Arts Co-op Program

3.3	That any disciplinary action imposed on me by the University, whether for academic or non-academic misconduct, may result in a “fail” grade for any co-op course and/or my being withdrawn from the Co-op Program.
-----	--

4. CO-OP WORKSHOPS / PRE-EMPLOYMENT TRAINING

4.1A	To complete all required pre-employment training and/or make-up activities. Incomplete pre-employment training and/or make-up activities may result in my removal from the program.
4.2A	To participate in a mandatory mock interview before I begin to interview for co-op jobs.

5. JOB SEARCH PROCESS

5.1	That the Co-op Program does not, and cannot, guarantee employment during a co-op work term. I will be actively engaged in the job search, through positions posted in Symplicity and through my own endeavours. It is ultimately my responsibility to secure co-op work term employment.
5.2	To review and discuss my self-directed job search with my Co-op Career Manager and keep them updated on my application and work search progress.
5.3	To allow the Co-op Program to solicit positions on my behalf.
5.4	That I will only submit applications to positions that I intend to accept if offered.
5.5	That I will not solicit positions from a co-op employer directly on my own without prior permission from Co-op staff.
5.6	To provide the Co-op Program and prospective employers with accurate and appropriate information regarding my qualifications and interests.
5.7	That I will provide truthful and accurate information in my application packages, during interviews or meetings with prospective employers.

5.9A	To not share positions available through the Co-op Program database with anyone outside of the Program.

6. INTERVIEWS

6.1	To attend all interviews with employers who have selected me as a candidate, and to conduct myself professionally throughout the process. I understand I may need to make accommodations in my academic or extra-curricular commitments to attend interviews based on an employer’s availability.
-----	---

UBC Arts Co-op Program

6.2	That the Co-op staff may, if necessary, select interview times on my behalf.
6.3	That interviews will only be rescheduled at the sole discretion of the employer, for exams, health reasons or emergencies and I will notify Co-op staff immediately of any interviews I am unable to attend for any reason.
6.4	To notify the Co-op staff of the details of all interviews an employer arranges directly with me.
6.5	To contact my Co-op Career Manager as soon as possible after an interview if I do not want to accept the position if offered.

7. JOB OFFERS

7.1	That I will accept or reject all job offers through my Co-op Career Manager or designated Co-op staff. I will consult with my Co-op Career Manager before accepting a job offer external to Symplicity and allow them to contact this employer to ensure the position satisfies the criteria of a co-op work term and to inform the employer of the co-op guidelines.
7.1A	That I will count any position secured through a self-directed job search as a co-op work term if the position meets the Arts Co-op Program criteria; I may be withdrawn from the Program if I fail to do so.
7.2	That I will be required to pay the necessary travel and/or relocation expenses (such as housing), if not subsidized by the employer, when accepting positions not within close proximity of my current home or campus.
7.3	To respond to a co-op job offer, indicating whether I will accept or decline the offer within 2 business days, unless a shorter period is specified by the employer.
7.4	To accept the salary offered by employers understanding that the work terms are paid employment and reflect the organization's salary scale and my level of training and experience. I will not negotiate the salary offered unless I have spoken with my Co-op Career Manager and received permission to do so.
7.5	That once I have signed an offer of employment and/or agree to a verbal offer of employment, I have a professional and ethical obligation to satisfy the requirements of my employment contract. If I break my contract of employment, for a position secured through co-op or via my self-directed job search efforts, I will not be satisfying the conditions of the Co-op Program and will be assigned a 'Fail' grade for the co-op course and withdrawn from the Co-op Program unless I have obtained permission to breach the contract from the Co-op Program prior to doing so. In exceptional circumstances permission to breach the contract may be granted retroactively, but only where it is impractical to obtain permission prior to breaching the contract and where co-op staff is notified of the breach as soon as reasonably possible following the breach of the employment contract.
7.6	That once I have accepted an offer (either verbally or in writing), I will not accept any other offers or requests for interviews for the work term(s) covered by the employment contract.
7.7	That if I return to a co-op employer for any subsequent co-op work term, whether consecutive work terms or not, I will be registered in the co-op course and pay my graduate fee installment.

8. REGISTRATION

8.1	To be registered by the Arts Co-op office administration in one co-op course for each four-month work term period when I have secured co-op employment.
8.2	To pay my graduate fee installment for every co-op work term (consecutive or not) by the due dates specified in the UBC Academic Calendar applicable to my campus whether I secure a co-op work term through the Co-op Program or through my self-directed job search and will not de-register myself from the co-op course.
8.3	I will disclose any job opportunity I secure that starts after I am admitted into the Co-op program to determine if it is eligible to be counted as a Co-op work term.

9.3	That employment during each co-op work term must be full-time, supervised, and remunerated.
